

Public Economics Seminar

Winter term 2021 / 2022

Date	Lecturer	Topic
21.10.2021	Ines Helm LMU Munich	Firm Expansion in Imperfect Labor Markets
28.10.2021	Johannes Voget University of Mannheim	How do Firm Decision-Makers Form Preferences About Fiscal Policy? Evidence from a Large-Scale Survey Experiment with Firms
04.11.2021	Rainer Haselmann Goethe University Frankfurt	Supranational Supervision
11.11.2021 at 3:00 pm	Mike Zabek Federal Reserve Board	Women's Labor Force Exits During COVID-19: Differences by Motherhood, Race, and Ethnicity (online via zoom)
02.12.2021 at 3:00 pm	Li Liu IMF	Tax Spillovers in Cross-Border Real Investment: Evidence from a New Dataset on Multinationals
09.12.2021	Michael Graber University of Chicago	How Americans Respond to Idiosyncratic and Exogenous Changes in Household Wealth and Unearned Income
16.12.2021 at 3:00 pm	Kory Kroft University of Toronto	Saliency and Taxation with Imperfect Competition
23.12.2021	Laurence Jacquet CY Cergy Paris University	How to tax different incomes

Due to the Corona virus (SARS-CoV-2) situation, the seminars will be held online as webinars. We will use Zoom for the webinars. The link to participate will be provided shortly before each seminar.